

FAMILY CONFIDANT A $300,000 FORGER

Gillespie, Secretary to George Arents and His Son, Pleads Guilty on Discovery.

James S. Gillespie, former secretary to George Arents of No. 511 Fifth Avenue, and later to George Arents Jr., pleaded guilty before Judge Crain in General Sessions yesterday of forgery in the second degree. He was remanded until May 13 for sentence.

Assistant District Attorney Donohue said Gillespie, who for ten years occupied a confidential position in the Arents family, forged eighty-two checks, amounting to $300,000. Part of the money, the Prosecutor said, was invested in the moving picture business.

Mr. Donohue said the forgeries were committed after the death of the elder Arents. The widow and her son, the latter managing his father's estate, branch of the Farmers' Loan and Trust Company.

It was specifically charged that Gillespie forged a check for $15,000 in the name of Mrs. Arents, drawn to the account of her son, and collected the proceeds. Another method described by Mr. Donohue was stamping an endorsement on checks drawn by Mrs. Arents to the order of her son.

The irregularities were discovered when George Arents Jr. was told by the trust company his account was short. Gillespie was indicted Dec. 22 last.
